(Max Ogletree in action against Northside Church, scoring 16 points.)

Max Ogletree - A Star with a bright future ahead. Only 8 years old. A gifted kid with God-given potential. I see in Max what I saw in Chris Paul, now an NBA top point guard, when I coached him in North Carolina when he was Max's age.

Max knows how to set up in a 2-3 zone, man to man, pick and roll, and trail. He is also top of his class. Straight-A student with perfect attendance. And Max is currently regarded as the top 8-year-old in the country. Max is on his way to destiny. The class of 2019. A Christian young man. I pray to God that I am still living to see him and others as well.
